Receive Paging Message 501
Determine whether Paging Message comprises either of system information modification indicator and/or extended system information modification indicator 503
No indicator
Normal indicator only
Extended indicator only
Both indicators
No change to system information : Do not acquire system information 505
System information will change at next modification boundary : Begin system information acquisition from the start of the next modification period 507
System information has been changed : Acquire system information immediately 509
System information has been changed & will be changed at next modification boundary : Acquire system information immediately & again from the start of the next modification period 511

Figure 5